(b) whether it is a fact that this scheme was beset with dubious deals; and

(c) if so, what action has been taken by Government to remove such irregularities?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI MOTI LAL VORA): (a) to (c) Appointment of General Sales Agents by airlines is an industrial practice which Air India also follows. It is not correct to say that appointment of GSA by Air India is beset with dubious deals. At times there are differences due to the interpretation of the clauses of the Agreement. Air India follows the laid down procedure both for approving the necessity of appointing and for the selection of GSAs. In the air transport market which is highly competitive, other airlines resort to various schemes to attract traffic and Air India also has to appoint GSAs to retain its share of the market. There was a case of the GSA of Air India in London viz. M/s. Hindustan Travel Services where certain guidelines regarding the payment of incentive commission was misconstrued. This matter was investigated in detail and the General Sales Agreement with M/s. Hindustan Travel Services was terminated with effect from 30th April, 1986. Subsequently, Air India appointed M/s. Gimvale Ltd., trading as Welcome Travels, as the new GSA in London with effect from November 1986.
